

Clark County Peer Support Meeting

Sponsored by the Clark County Regional Support Network

Clark County Peer Support Meeting

Each meeting features a different educational topic related to peer support services in the mental health field. Topics range from presentations about local organizations to information on mental health recovery.

In addition, each meeting includes:

- Resource information
- Information about training opportunities and upcoming events
- Information on local job openings
- An opportunity for attendees to talk about successes or challenges they are experiencing in their role as a peer support

Join Us! These meetings are open to anyone—whether you are working as a Certified Peer Support Counselor, are interested in becoming a peer support, or would just like more information.

Meeting Schedule Meetings are held the last Wednesday of every-other-month:

- January 26, 2011
- March 30, 2011
- May 25, 2011
- July 27, 2011
- September 28, 2011
- November 30, 2011

Do you have questions about this meeting or peer support in general? Please contact Melanie Green at (360) 397-2130 or melanie.green@clark.wa.gov

Please feel free to bring your lunch and any resources or information you would like to share!

Please Note: the meeting day and time may change based on the scheduling needs of those attending. This flyer is current as of January 2011. If you are unsure if the meeting schedule has changed since then, please call and check.
